To whom it may concern,

Png Gi Gi worked as a server at Baker and Cook under my supervision ever since the outlet opened in November 2018.

Over that time, I was consistently impressed with her customer service and people management skills as well as her dedication and good humor. She's truly a gifted server, fast on her feet and able to remember orders without using an order pad.

She is always punctual for her shift & takes initiatives to help out whenever required. She is able to complete given task timely. Cashiering, Customer service & Housekeeping is not an issue for her as she handled well within her job scope.

Her Contribution and support had helped our store in good & tough times. She have made a good memory for all of us to keep while working on shift alongside with her. We are all very happy to have her as part of our team & outlet. With her good customer service, she will be able to do good in any company.
